CHARLOTTE HOTEL,

W. M. MATTHEWS & SON,

PROPRIETORS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TAKE this method of returning their sincere thanks to their friends and the public generally for the very liberal manner in which their House has been patronized under the charge of Matthews & Stegall, and they pledge themselves that no pains shall be spared to make their patrons comfortable.

Their table shall be furnished with the very best market affords.

Attentive and polite servants will always be on hand and every effort will be made to give entire satisfaction.

Their stables are large and commodious, sufficient to accommodate all who may come to see us. Horses and Vehicles always on hand to supply the wants of customers.

Your Mission.

If you cannot on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet,
Reeking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storms you meet
You can stand among the sailors
Anchored yet within the bay;
You can lend a hand to help them
As they launch their boats away.

If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountains, steep and high,
You can stand within the valley
While the multitudes go by;
You can climb in happy measures
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.

If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command,
If you cannot toward the needy
Reach an ever open hand,
You can visit the afflicted,
Over the erring you can weep;
You can be a true disciple,
Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

If you cannot in the conflict,
Prove yourself a soldier, too;
If where fire and smoke are thick,
There's no work for you to do;
When the battle-field is silent,
Do not fear to do and dare;
You can bear away the wounded;
You can cover up the dead.

Do not, then, stand idly waiting
For some greater work to do;
Fortune is a lazy goodieus,
She will never come to you;
Go and toil in any vineyard,
If you want a field of labor;
You can find it anywhere.

To The People of Western North Carolina.

It is with pain that I have to defend myself from a false charge. On account of my efforts to secure the funds appropriated by the State for the construction of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, I incurred the displeasure of Geo. W. Swepson and T. L. Clingman. In order to show the nature of these offences to Messrs. Swepson and Clingman, I will begin with the following notice which was presented to both, and which neither would sign:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 21, 1870.
Messrs. M. S. Littlefield, and Geo. W. Swepson Esqs:

GENTLEMEN: It is our earnest request that the Directors of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad now in this city be called together at the earliest practicable moment, this day, to take some advisory steps in reference to the best interests of said road, &c.

[Signed] A. H. JONES.

J. R. AMMONS.

On account of my outspoken opposition to the manner in which the railroad funds had been squandered, I had, prior to the above notice, been threatened with a letter if I persisted in my opposition to Swepson, and the following goes to show my conduct then in reference to attempts to intimidate me by such threats:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Apr. 16, 1870.

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that during the investigation of the sale of Cadetships and Midshipmen by the Military Committee of the House, one Col. Littlefield said to me that he knew a man who said he held a letter written to him by the Hon. A. H. Jones, proposing to sell the appointment of Midshipmen, and that if the said Jones did not let him alone he would bring it before the Military Committee. The said Littlefield requested me to say to Mr. Jones that such action was threatened, which I did, and Mr. Jones said in reply that he was more than willing for them to send the letter to the Committee; that he had never proposed to sell any appointment whatever, and that he did not fear investigation—he requested me to inform Col. Littlefield that he desired them to bring forward such letter, if they had any such. Since then Col. Littlefield informed me that Geo. W. Swepson was the party that claimed to have received the above mentioned letter from Mr. Jones. I further certify that Mr. Jones has at all times appeared willing and anxious for any letter he had written to be made public, or to be seen before any Committee.

[Signed] J. R. AMMONS.

P. S.—The conversation above referred to occurred during the session of the Military Committee in the months of January and February, 1870.

[Signed.] J. R. A.

The following was prepared by myself and presented to all the Directors then in Washington for their signatures, as advisory to Messrs. Swepson and Littlefield, but all except the Rev. Mr. Ammons and myself refused to sign it:

WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 21, 1870.

To M. S. Littlefield, and Geo. W. Swepson Esqs:

GENTLEMEN—As Directors of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, we respectfully advise and request you to make the Report and return the Bonds or the proceeds in substitution of the same, as required by the recent act of Assembly. We are satisfied that this course is demanded by the public sentiment and best interests of the State, and is the best mode of avoiding (or causing the repeal of) the acts repealing the appropriations, and other unfriendly legislation, and is the only course to secure the construction of the road.

[Signed] A. H. JONES,

J. R. AMMONS,

Mr. Swepson subsequently to the above request repaired to Raleigh under a summons by the Governor, but did he turn over the funds? No, verily; finding that he would have to disgorge or be arrested and imprisoned, he fled as a thief in the night. Would not the man who takes flight from justice for defrauding the State, and especially the people of the west, commit forgery?

From the time this occurrence took place, nothing more was heard of the purported letter until after a Commission was appointed by act of Assembly to make settlement with Messrs. Swepson & Co., whereupon during the presence of the said Commission in the City, a meeting of the Directors was hastily called. [Strange that no inducement could get this call previously.] Suspecting the object of the call to be with the view of interfering with the business of the Commission, by procuring the assent of the Directors to some exorbitant measure with the view of influencing the Commissioners, whose sole business it was to make settlement, I prepared the following, and at the meeting presented it to the Secretary, W. W. Rollins, to be read and afterward filed with the Board of Commissioners, Mr. Rollins himself being one of the Commissioners:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Apr. 7, 1870.

In the name of the tax paying people of North Carolina, and in the interest of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, in whatever capacity I may be acting, whether as a Director or as a citizen, I hereby enter my solemn protest against any settlement or agreement by the Commissioners recently appointed by act of Assembly, to make settlement with the present and former officers of the said Railroad Company, with any party or parties whomsoever, which does not secure to the said Railroad Company the market value of the bonds issued to the said company at the time they were disposed of by the party or parties who had the disposal of the same.

[Signed] ALEX. H. JONES

Upon the reading of this protest, to my mind, Messrs. Swepson and Clingman could not have exhibited more excitement if a bomb-shell had exploded in the room. Swepson affirmed that it was a direct thrust at him, and that he intended to treat it as such and shortly afterwards exhibited, what purported to be, the threatened letter to Maj. W. W. Rollins and Wm. G. Candler, proposing at the same time, that if they would oppose me for Congress, he would destroy the letter and nothing more should be heard of it, but, that if they would not agree to oppose me for Congress, he would post copies of the letter throughout my District, or words to that effect. Shortly after this T. L. Clingman, in answer to a letter published in the Raleigh Sentinel, goes out of his way to attack me, and brings in a letter purporting to be written by John T. Deweese, who, but a short time previous, resigned his seat in Congress to prevent expulsion, for actually selling his appointment at the Naval Academy.—Deweese was also charged with placing T. L. Clingman's name on a disability bill in a surreptitious manner. I made the charge and nineteen out of twenty members of Congress believe that Deweese is responsible for Mr. Clingman's name being so placed on the bill. It is plain to be seen how I have incurred the vengeance of Swepson, Clingman and Deweese, and how they are attempting to wreak vengeance upon me. But I have not ceased my efforts to procure a fair investigation of the charges set forth against me. The following letter and accompaniments speak for themselves:

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 25, 1870.

Geo. W. Swepson, Esq.,

Baltimore Md.

Sir: I write to request and demand that you produce a letter purported to be written by myself to you, which letter it is reported contains a proposition by me to sell you an appointment at Annapolis, Md., which report I charge to be false. In order that said letter may be examined and a fair investigation had, I request and demand that you place the said letter in the hands of either or all of the following gentlemen within ten days from this date, to-wit: Hon. John Pool, Hon. O. H. Dockery, Hon. C. L. Cobb, either or all of which gentlemen are now in, and will remain in this city (Washington) during the next ten days.

I demanded, when threatened last winter with this claimed letter, that it be placed in the hands of the Military committee for investigation, as I have proved, but it was not so placed. I demanded its production through the public press, and it has not been produced. I now again demand it as above cited, and if it is not produced as required, I shall publish this letter with such comments as I see fit to use.

With Due Respect,

A. H. JONES.

WITNESS.—I hereby certify that the above is a true and verbatim copy of a letter written by A. H. Jones dated as above, and same tenor, which letter was registered and mailed by me to Geo. W. Swepson, care Fals & Co., No. 60, South Sharp St., Baltimore, Md., on May 25th, 1870.

[Signed] OSCAR EASTMOND, [SEAL]

Baltimore Md., May 27, 1870.

Received the above described letter.

[Signed] GEO. W. SWEPSON,

By L. FALLS.

June 9, 1870.

Fifteen days have passed since the above letter was mailed and thirteen days elapsed since it was delivered as above receipt and dates go to show, and no reply, much less the said letter has been produced as requested.

Now I appeal to all fair minded and candid men and ask why has this purported letter been withheld? I have never asked that the letter be placed in my own hands, but on the contrary to be placed in the hands of a lawfully constituted committee, whose sworn duty it was to investigate such charges alone. I have asked through the public Press that the claimed letter be produced. I have demanded by registered letter that it be placed in the hands of disinterested gentlemen, yet it has been withheld. What more can I do to exonerate myself from the false charge? What better evidence is wanted to show that the parties who are hunting me down, do not intend that I shall have a fair showing? No; it suits their purposes better to conceal the matter among those who envy me the position I occupy. The hope to damage me just on the eve of an important election.

I am informed by a friend who saw the letter, that the alleged corrupt proposition is contained in a line or two appended at the bottom, which contains no reference from the letter, nor has any connection with it, which appendage does not appear in my hand writing, and is in different ink.—This letter has been kept back to be an instrument in the hands of such unscrupulous men as Deweese and Clingman.

There are some men with so little moral principle that they think that the end justifies the means in politics, and that the basest trickery may be resorted to in order to insure their success.

It is the lowest of all baseness to do mean acts for the purpose of charging them upon somebody else. What would be thought of a person who would fire a house for the purpose of creating suspicion that some body against whom he held a grudge had committed arson?

What would be thought of such a person if he should come out and openly accuse another of the crime which he had committed, and swear to it for the purpose of having him convicted?

Geo. W. Swepson did all he could to bribe and corrupt me, and after making an apology for offering me money, he turns around, as it appears, and employs me as a poor orphan, as he (Swepson) called him, and after in this way, arousing my sympathy, by a promise to make his nephew a permanent resident of my District, gets my consent to place his claimed nephew name on a list simply for consideration, and it was in reference to this alone, through the solicitations of Deweese, I wrote, and my letter contained not a word or intimation of a proposition to take pay.

Subsequent events go to show that Swepson's object was, with the aid of Deweese, to get me under his thumb, so that I dare not, for fear of exposure, act the part of an honest and independent man in railroad matters.

Now, if I had been disposed to take bribes I certainly would have accepted Swepson's last offer. On my way to Congress about the last of November last, I stopped in Raleigh. While there Geo. W. Swepson approached me on the street and the following ensued: Said he, if you will decline to be a candidate for Congress, and will come out in favor of Tod, Caldwell, I will give you a Railroad contract with my guarantee that you shall clear ten thousand dollars. I replied, where do you propose to give me the contract, and he answered at your home, on the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad. I told him that he had no more right or power to give me a contract than I had to give him one, and that if he had, and I was otherwise disposed to take his offer, I would scorn to rob the State and our Railroad of the money in any such way. He then asked me if I would decline to run for Congress for ten thousand dollars in cash. I replied, will you give me ten thousand in cash if I will decline to run? He answered, I will, if you will decline and come out and support Caldwell. I then asked him if he proposed to pay me in Railroad money or his own? He replied, in his own money, and added that Tod was then in the city, and that the matter could be easily arranged if I would assent to it. I told him that my honor was not for sale, and that I would not sell myself to the support of any man. It is not necessary to occupy more time and space at this time in reference to this particular subject, except to state, that I shortly afterwards wrote Swepson an indefinite note in regard to his propositions, hoping thereby to draw a committal from him in writing, but the fox was too old.

Whether Mr. Caldwell was really in Raleigh at the time, as Swepson said, I do not know, nor do I charge that Mr. Caldwell had any knowledge of such a proposition; but such a proposition was made to me by Swepson, and my written statements made shortly afterwards are now in the hands of other parties corroborating what I have herein stated in reference to this particular subject. So this statement is only a reiteration of what I stated long before I knew of any charges or threats being made by Swepson against me.

The only solution that I can arrive at is, that after Swepson made the discovery that I could not be bought nor black-mailed into his interests and fraudulent purposes, he intends, with the aid of Deweese and Clingman, to break me down with slanderous charges, which he has refused to allow investigated. In this way I am to be crushed out of such mens way if money will crush me, as has been threatened.

The question is, will the people sustain Swepson & Co., in their corruptions, or will they sustain those who dare discharge their duty? of proffered bribes, threats of black-mail and shameful slander?

Who is Geo. W. Swepson? A Rebel speculator during the war, and swindler and slanderer since. Who is John T. Deweese and T. L. Clingman? Echo answers:—

Hence from my sight and memory: go thou from the the presence of honest men and gentlemen I brand thy brow with the blackness of Cain; wander up and down in the earth; wear thy mark as long as thou livest; and when thou diest thou shalt surely so appear before thy God:

My countrymen, if in what I have said language is employed which falls upon your ears as unnecessary, I ask your pardon, but beg you to reflect that it comes from a man sensitive in the extreme, who feels that a serious attempt has been made to wound his honor and blast his reputation before the State and the world. But I trust that in your judgement the coils so artfully woven around me are shivered into atoms, and that I stand before you in the sunlight of truth. But "come what will, come what may," I am at peace within; for as I stand before God and saints and angels, in all I have said, to the best of my knowledge, I have spoken the truth.

Falschhood and vice oft for a season prevail against truth and virtue, but I calmly and confidently abide the issue.

"Truth crushed to earth shall rise again
The eternal years of God are hers;
But error, wounded, writhes with pain,
And dies among her worshippers."

Your obedient servant,

ALEX. H. JONES.

WASHINGTON, June 9th, 1870.

P. S.—I will add that I have in my possession what purports to be a copy of my letter, and as I have been denied the poor privilege of seeing the original one in my own hand, I am not prepared to say that some portion of it is not a true copy, but I most positively deny being the author of the appended portion, which does not appear to have any reference to the letter or the postscript to the postscript to the same, and does not even contain the initials of my name.

A Mexican Sensation—Rosecrans, Escobedo and J. Bankhead Magruder to Overrun Mexico.

A Brownsville letter to the New York Sun tells the following rather startling story:

"A filibustering expedition into Mexico is now organizing. The preliminary steps were taken several months ago, when Gen. Rosecrans, late of the United States army, paid a visit to that country, and traversed it extensively. The leaders of the expedition will be former officers of the United States army and of the late Confederacy, with General Rosecrans in supreme command.—The headquarters are in New York city. The principal subordinate departments are Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Houston, Texas, New Orleans and Shreveport, Louisiana.

Major R. Schelly, a Tribune correspondent during the war, has something to do with this expedition. He has been in Chicago for the past month, and may still be there. The Confederate General J. Bankhead Magruder is the commander of the New Orleans portion of the expedition, and from all I hear, will pay a prominent part in the affair.

"The Federal authorities at Washington are fully aware of the decisive step about to be taken, and, as the saying is, wink at it. The grand passage over the Rio Grande and into the Mexican territory will take the plan is as follows:

"Rosecrans and the Mexican General Escobedo, who, I am informed, is here, and in supreme command of the Mexican forces in the Northeast, and who fought the late Emperor Maximilian so well, have come to a satisfactory understanding, and, in consideration of a large sum of money paid to Escobedo, it is mutually understood and agreed to conduct the enterprise as follows: The filibusters will enter the country along the border, in squads of twenty and upward, and as if they were emigrants, miners (on their way to the gold mines of New Mexico), drovers and the like.

"General Escobedo is to withdraw his army one or two hundred miles away from the border, to enable the expedition to enter the country, organize, and then advance as a military force. Then both armies, supposed to be hostile, are to advance and have a shot, sharp engagement, at the termination of which Escobedo is to break and fall back, in utter confusion, and then to aid and assist the carpet-gagger to conquer the country, and establish a government, with Rosecrans or some one else at its head, which government will ultimately be turned over to the United States authorities."

"Why do you walk, Bob, when you've got a donkey to ride?" said a gentleman to an Irish lad, who was walking by the side of his donkey. "Sure, then, replied the boy, 'I'm jest walking to rest my legs.' 'Get out of the way boy!' said a gentleman on horse back to a boy in the road. 'My horse don't like donkeys: 'Then why don't he kick you off.'"

"Julius, s'pose dere are six chickens in a coop and de man sells free, how many are dere left?"

"What time ob day was it?"

Why, what de thunder hab dat to do wid de case?"

"A good deal, honey. If it war arter dark dere would be none left, dat is, if you happen to come along dat way."

What the Ku Klux Democracy will do if they get control of this State.
Ex-Gov. Z. B. Vance, the Ku Klux Candidate for the Senate in Mecklenburg, used the following language in a speech delivered in Raleigh on the Fifth of February, 1868:
"We the Conservative party get control of this State, the condition of the Republicans here will be worse than that of the inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah."
Z. B. Vance is the acknowledged enemy of the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, with the exception of Lot and his two daughters, were entirely destroyed. The twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth verses of the nineteenth chapter of Genesis, are as follows:
"24. Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of Heaven;
25. And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground."
Gov. Vance informs the Republicans of this State that their condition will be worse than that of the inhabitants of Sodom and Gomorrah, when they, the Conservatives and Democrats, get control of this State. We are at a loss to conceive of anything worse than a death by fire and brimstone. The literal construction of the language of Gov. Vance is, that the Republicans are to be exterminated. Death is to be their portion. To make success certain, the Ku Klux have been killing for more than twelve months. As soon as the election is over and Gov. Vance is elected to the Senate, then, we suppose the extermination of Republicans will commence. The Ex-Gov. will no doubt take a hand himself, and assist in mashing under fence rails, the fingers of some of the Republican ladies of North Carolina.
The Ku Klux Democracy are confident of success. Flushed with murders, assassinations, and whippings, they feel that they will be enabled to terrify enough Republicans from the polls, for them to carry the election. We know that Gov. Vance and his followers are determined to stir up another WAR. They intend to have control throughout the Union, and they commence their operations by foul means. They are desperate, and anything in the catalogue of crime will not deter them from their purpose. George Martin Whiteside, and Joseph Logan Carson are followers of Vance. When Vance takes a pinch of snuff they sneeze. These are the men that desire the votes of the people in August next. We do not believe the people will vote for them. The people are for PEACE; Vance, Whiteside, and Carson are for WAR. They apologise for the murders committed by the Ku Klux Democracy. They endorsed the program of Frank Blair to disperse this State Government at the point of the bayonet. They uphold the doings of the Ku Klux Klan, and hope to succeed by murdering Republicans. The nominees of the Ku Klux Democracy throughout the State, is evidence of the WAR that the Ku Klux Democracy intend to inaugurate when they get into power. Look at Georgia. Look at Tennessee. People of North Carolina if you would not be in the same condition, vote down these WAR MEN. They were for WAR under Jeff. Davis. They are now for WAR under Vance and Company. They still cling to their old motto of "rule or ruin."

We are for PEACE. As a faithful sentinel, we have sounded the alarm. The result is with the people. The peace, safety, and prosperity of the State and country, depends upon the defeat of the Ku Klux Democracy in August next. There is a thousand majority in Rutherford for Peace, Law and Order. Rouse up, ye friends of Liberty and good Government. One more victory and we will have peace and quiet.
Plato Durham, the Ku Klux Candidate for Congress.
This gentleman belongs to the Ku Klux party. He was an original secessionist. He was for fighting until "Hell froze over, and then fight on the ice." He did fight. The war is over and he would like to get up another war. He has said "that he did not regret anything that he did during the war, only that he did not do more." He fought—killed all he could—made wives widows—children fatherless—and now that the country is settling down to peace and repose, this Ku Klux candidate for Congress, regrets that he did not do more to fasten upon the people of North Carolina, the despotism of Jefferson Davis. He endorsed Jeff. Davis. He endorsed the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. He endorsed the impressment laws. He endorsed the conscript laws. In one word—the despotism of Jefferson Davis had no firmer or more ardent supporter than Plato Durham, the candidate of the Ku Klux Democracy for Congress.
Voters of the Seventh Congressional District what claims has Plato Durham to your suffrages beyond the fact that he is the Ku Klux candidate for Congress? We say that he has none. The journal of the Constitutional Convention shows that Mr. Durham dodged the vote on the adoption of the article on Homesteads. The people of North Carolina are under no obligations to Mr. Durham for the benefit of the Homestead. If he did not vote for it, he would vote to take it away if he had a chance. The adoption of the Constitution rid this State of Military rule. Mr. Durham voted against the Constitution and in favor of the continuance of military rule over this State.
Mr. Durham refused to sign the Constitution. The Convention adjourned. Mr. Durham returned home, canvassed against the Constitution. The safe-guards thrown around taxation—the means provided for schools—were incorporated in the Constitution against Mr. Durham's vote. Does Mr. Durham deserve your votes?
Is It So?
We are informed by a gentleman, who served in Maj. L. P. Erwin's Battalion of Senior Reserves, that Maj. Erwin and George Martin Whiteside, Adjutant of said Battalion, made an arrangement while the Battalion was stationed at Morganton, to hire these poor old men who were forced from their homes, to the Railroad at the sum of ten dollars per month, but on this condition, that Mr. Whiteside & Co., were to receive five dollars per month of each man's pay for their trouble for hiring them. We hope Mr. Whiteside will explain this to the people as they are anxious to hear about this matter. These old men will remember it, and will be apt to call for this explanation.

Peace or War.
This is the issue now before the people. The people were called upon to decide the same question in 1868, when they voted for Grant for President. Seymour and Blair were defeated and the Carpet-bag State Governments of the Southern States were not dispersed at the point of the bayonet. The people are to decide on the first Thursday in August next whether our State Government shall stand and the people be protected, or the Government torn asunder, and the loyal portion of the people of the State murdered and assassinated. The Ku Klux Democracy party are murdering, assassinating, whipping, and committing depredations upon Republicans throughout the State, to terrify and keep a sufficient number away from the polls for them to carry the election. The people know this to be so. We tell them that it is so. There will be no protection for life or property if the Ku Klux party succeed in getting control at the next election. Put the Ku Klux in power and Congress will be compelled to place this State under military rule, and proceed to reconstruct the State again. Labor will be low. Land and property of all kinds will not sell for anything. Business of all kinds will stagnate, and everything that the people have been called upon to suffer and bear, will have to be gone through with again, to prevent the Ku Klux Democracy from ruining the State and murdering the people. We repeat—the issue is—PEACE or WAR. Those who vote for the Ku Klux Democracy vote for War; those who vote for the Republicans, vote for Peace. Choose to-day.
A Word to the Colored People.
We can occasionally hear a Conservative land holder say, that he can control certain colored voters that he has in his employ, or that are living on his land.
Now we do not believe all we hear, and from this source we do not believe half we hear, for we do not believe there is a sensible colored man in this country, that will be controlled by the Conservatives, far enough to vote for them, but we wish to say a few words to our colored friends, in order that they may be put upon their guard. We warn you in time, not to be deceived and gulled by the so-called, Conservative party, knowing them as well as you do, and being familiar with their past course towards your race you can but know that they are not your friends, but your bitter enemies politically, and would not hesitate one moment, had they the power, to deprive you of every political and civil right that has been bestowed upon you by your friends, the Republicans.
They will make you any and all kinds of promises, rent you their lands, and furnish you with provisions to make a crop, if you will only promise to vote for them, but just tell them you are a Republican, and that you are going to vote the Republican ticket, and they change their tune at once, they tell you, no s'r, you can't rent my land, you can't get my bacon, nor my corn, if you won't do as I want you too, you may go, I do not want anything to do with you. Now we ask you in all candor, do you think this kind of treatment is friendship? If you are only to gain their favor, by sacrificing your principles, and making yourselves slaves to their will, do you think, can you think that they have any friendship for you? We can answer for you NO a thousand times NO! Their friendship for the colored race, extends not beyond a hope of deceiving them, gulling them out of their votes, and thereby gaining access to power, and then, colored voters you may prepare for the worst, for your days of liberty, freedom and equality before the laws, will be done for ever. Think you that if the Conservative party had control of this Government, that they would allow you to exercise that inestimable boon of liberty, the right of suffrage? Think you that you would not be allowed to testify in open court in behalf of yourselves and your friends? Far from it.
Why one of the first steps they would make if they had the power in their hands, would be to deprive the colored man of every vestige of liberty, that they now enjoy. Now we say to the colored voters, these are solemn stubborn facts, that cannot be denied successfully by the so-called Conservative party, and we call upon you to know, if you will lay still and allow these men, your political enemies, to take control of this Government, may further, is there a colored man in Rutherford county, in North Carolina, that will by his vote, help to place these men in power? If there is, we would warn him against his danger. We ask him to think, and to pause before taking a step that may deprive him of liberty forever. We would advise the colored voters who know their danger to go to work in good earnest, turn every stone that can be turned between now and the election. Go to every colored man that there is any doubt about, and talk to him, show him the danger of his course, and urge his duty upon him, and when the election day comes, let it not be said that there was one single colored vote cast in Rutherford county to deprive himself of liberty, and to again throw the chains of slavery around the balance of his race.

Keep it before the People.
Keep it before the people, That the Democratic Conservative party, is the Ku Klux party.
Keep it before the people, Therefore, that the Ku Klux party is in favor of murdering and assassinating Republicans to get control of the State Government.
Keep it before the people, That the Ku Klux Democracy are the men who suspended the great writ of habeas corpus, and arrested and put innocent men in Castle Thunder and Libby prison, to languish and die.
Keep it before the people, That the Ku Klux Democracy are the men who murdered and massacred the colored people at New Orleans and Memphis.
Keep it before the people, That the Ku Klux Democracy are sworn to overthrow our State Government by force and thereby inaugurate a war.
Keep it before the people, That George Martin Whiteside, and Joseph Logan Carson, belong to the Ku Klux Democracy.
Keep it before the people, That the issue is PEACE or WAR.
Keep it before the people, That the Ku Klux Democracy are in favor of War.
Keep it before the people, That the Republican party is the party of PEACE, LAW, and ORDER.
Wm. M. Shipp.
This gentleman is the nominee of the Ku Klux Democracy for Attorney General. The self-executive committee of the Ku Klux Democracy, nominated Mr. Shipp. It is conclusive evidence that something is wrong, as the Ku Klux Democracy are afraid to meet and hold a State Convention. They have not held one since Ex-Governor Graham announced that the line of color was the dividing line between the two parties. They are afraid of divisions and have not held a Convention of their party to nominate an Attorney General. A few men, acting without authority, meet together in the city of Raleigh, and say who the Ku Klux Democracy shall support for Attorney General.
Mr. Shipp has no claim upon the people of North Carolina for their votes. He did all he could against the constitution, and supported Seymour and Blair. He is in favor of WAR. The letter of Frank P. Blair has not been denounced or repudiated. Mr. Shipp endorsed that letter and supported Frank P. Blair. He was for WAR then, and is for WAR now.
The Ku Klux Democracy are loud-mouthed in their praises of the ability, character, and standing of their candidates; what have they to say to Mr. Shipp when compared with Mr. Phillips. If the Ku Klux Democracy were honest or would do to trust, there would be no opposition to Mr. Phillips. But they are going to vote for a man for Attorney General, whose legal ability is little better than that of a second rate County Court Lawyer, compared with Mr. Phillips. In point of legal ability, character, and standing, Mr. Shipp fades like the dew before the morning sun. There is no comparison between the two. Every man who desires to have an Attorney General equal in every respect, to any man in the State, will vote for Mr. Phillips. Those who vote for Mr. Shipp will vote for a man very much inferior to Mr. Phillips. Let us have the better man, vote for Samuel F. Phillips.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
THE TRICHINA SPIRALS OR PORK WORM.
Perhaps it is not generally known that the much talked of trichina spirals, or pork worm, was first discovered in America by Dr. R. C. Kendall, of Philadelphia, Pa., with that American instrument known as the Craig Microscope, costing only $2.75, after repeated failures to discover the worm with an imported microscope, costing $55. Of feeble power and less reliable. This fact Dr. Kendall stands ready to prove at any time. "Craig" Microscope in neat box with full directions is mailed anywhere for $2.75, by E. H. Ross, 313 Levee St., St. Louis, Mo. Read the advertisement in this paper. 20-3a
A WONDERFUL MICROSCOPE.—Rev. Daniel Wise, D. D., editor of the New York Sunday School Advocate, it is speaks of the celebrated Craig Microscope:
"Its simplicity, cheapness and great magnifying power struck me with surprise. Then I was examining a fly's eye by its aid, and was struck with wonder at the skill and power of the Creator which is displayed in its structure. When I saw a statement in an advertisement that the Craig Microscope magnified one hundred diameters, and could be bought for $2.50, I thought 'it was one of the handiworks of the hour, for I had paid $20 for a microscope not long before. But now I find it to be a really valuable instrument which I should like to see introduced into the families of our readers in place of the manifold useless toys which please for an hour and are then destroyed. This microscope would both amuse and instruct them and I advise every boy and girl who wishes to know the wonders which lie in little things to save his money until he has $2.75, which will pay for the microscope and the postage when sent by mail."
As a holiday gift the microscope is unsurpassed, being ornamental, instructive, amusing and cheap, and never loses its interest. Agents and dealers supplied on liberal terms. A sample will be mailed, post paid, to any address on receipt of the enclosed card. E. H. Ross, St. Louis, Mo. Read the advertisement in another column. 20-3a

The Living Machine.
Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what elastic piece of metal is to a watch-movement. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls, to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further: for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the timepiece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in lustre and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the Great Nourishing Organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be The One Thing Needful. The broken main spring of a watch can only be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates. As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopoeia have been exhausted, without, at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful, stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.
All women know that it is beauty, rather than genius, which all generations of men have worshipped in the sex. Can it be wondered at, then, that so much of woman's time and attention should be directed to the means of developing and preserving that beauty?—Women know, too, that when men speak of the intellect of women, they speak critically, tamely coolly; but when they come to speak of the charms of a beautiful woman, their language and their eyes kindle with an enthusiasm which shows them to be profoundly, if not indeed, ridiculously in earnest. It is part of the natural sagacity of women to perceive all this, and therefore every allowable art to become the goddess of that adoration. Preach to the contrary, as we may against the arts employed by women for enhancing their beauty, there still stands the eternal fact, that the world does not prefer the society of an ugly woman of genius to that of a beauty of less intellectual acquirements. The world has yet allowed no higher mission to women than to be beautiful, and it would seem that the ladies of the present age are carrying this idea of the world to greater extremes than ever, for all women now to whom nature has denied the titanic power of beauty, supply the deficiency by use of a most delightful toilet article, known as the "Bloom of Youth," which has been lately introduced into this country by GEORGE W. LAIRD, a delicate beautifier, which smooths out all indentations, furrows, scars, removing tan, freckles, and discolorations from the skin, leaving the complexion clear, brilliant, and beautiful, the skin soft and smooth. With the assistance of this new American trick of a Lady's toilet, female beauty is destined to play a larger part in the admiration of men and the ambition of women than all the arts employed since her creation. Prof. C. F. Chandler, Chemist to the Metropolitan Board of Health, has recently prepared a chemical analysis of this delightful toilet preparation, and reported that the "Bloom of Youth" was harmless, containing nothing injurious to the health. Ladies need have no fear of using this invaluable toilet acquisition.

Allow me to call your attention to my
Preparation of Compound EXTRACT BUCHU.
The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBES, JUNIPER BERRIES.
MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in racem. Juniper Berr. by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebes extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berr.; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.
Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous deposit. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Echin in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopoeia, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.
Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation.

TALL OATS.—Our friend, Dr. T. K. Cureton of this city, showed us, last week, some stalks of Oats (Norway variety) which beats anything in that line we have seen in a long time. One grain produced 12 stalks, six feet high and a very vigorous growth. Who can beat this?—Charlotte Democrat.

The above is a right large oat tale, but we have no doubt it is true, as this variety of oats is proving a success wherever sown, so far as we have been able to learn. Persons who desire a good variety of oats would do well to make arrangements early to secure the seed.

ASHEVILLE CONVENTION.—The Convention which met at Asheville last Saturday nominated Hon. A. H. Jones, as the candidate for re-election to Congress for this district. The Convention was composed of delegates and proxies from nearly every county in the district, and Mr. Jones received a large majority of the vote cast.

We shall publish the proceeding next week if we can get them. We believe that the Convention acted wisely in placing Mr. Jones before the people, as there is no truer Republican. He is an honest man, and will no doubt work for the interest of his constituents in the future, as in the past.

True.

The man who will take a newspaper for a length of time, and then send it back "refused," and unpaid for, would swallow a blind dog's dinner, and then stone the dog for being blind.—Ec.

He would do worse than that. He would marry a girl on trial, and send her back with the words "don't suit" chalked on her back, after the honey-moon.—Iron City.

Worse than that. He would steal the chalk to write it with, and afterwards use it on his shirts, to save the expense of washing, and then sue his wife's father for a month's boarding.—Ill. Standard.

Worse yet. He'd chase a sick rat 10 miles over a corduroy road, and institute a post mortem examination after he had caught him, in order to recover a stolen grain of corn.—Morgantown Star.

We endorse every word of the above. He would steal rotten acorns from a blind pig. He would steal all the winter meat of an editor.—Somerset Herald.

He would be as mean as the man who cursed his poor old mother for stopping in his door yard to beg for bread; and who gave his only child a penny for going to bed supperless, and the next morning charged him a penny for his breakfast.—Torch Light.

Stronger yet. He would sponge a living from the hard earnings of his poor old father until the poor old gentleman became unable to work, and then let him die in the poor house, and afterwards sell his remains to the medical students for anatomical purposes.—Bluffton Banner.

Worse still. He would dig up the bones of his mother and make dice of them, and play "chuck-a-luck" on his grandmother's tombstone for a cent which a horse-thief had stolen from the eye of a dead pauper.—Quinnan Banner.

Pretty severe on him, but in our opinion not enough so. He would be a fit subject for a Conservative nomination for office.

Shelby & S. C. Railroad.

We have information that Hon. Plato Durham, President of the Shelby & S. C. Railroad Company has sold a million dollars of the bonds of his Company in New York for $500,000. The bonds were endorsed by the S. C. R. R. Company and this amount will secure the building of Mr. Durham's Road from Yorkville, S. C. to Shelby, N. C. at once. Its extension to Morganton will only be a question of time.

The S. C. Company shows that it is alive to its interests by its encouragement to this enterprise and Charleston capital, too, will not be wanting to push out a connection from that city to the mountain region of North Carolina which will be, at some day, the wealthiest and most populous section of the State.

This new move on the Railroad chess board may have an important bearing on the trade and future prospects of Charlotte and Wilmington, also upon the business of the W. C. & R. R. if it is ever completed, we shall therefore probably refer to the subject again.—Charlotte Observer.

Legal Salaries.

The following are a few examples of large fees received by prominent lawyers: David Dudley Field received $300,000 from the Erie Railroad. William M. Stewart was paid $25,000 cash by the Gould-Curry silver mine, and so many feet of the ore, which altogether, netted him $200,000. Jeremiah S. Black received $60,000 from the New Alexander mine, and, a few months ago, he sued them for $75,000 in addition and received judgment. William M. Everts has been paid $25,000 for defending Andrew Johnson, and his annual income is $125,000.—He recently charged $5,000 for one speech which occupied 80 minutes.

A NOVELTY.—A party, among whom are several ministers of the Gospel, is to ascend the Black Mountain to Mitchell's Peak—the highest point east of the Rocky Mountains—on Saturday, 2d July. The next day, religious services are to be held at the grave of the great and good Dr. Mitchell, whose devotion to science cost him his life in the very midst of his distinguished career as a man of science. On the 4th, there is to be a picnic celebration of the day, with the usual Buncombe speeches, spread-eagle toasts, splendid enthusiasm, &c., &c. The citizens of the surrounding counties are invited and expected to be present.—Southern Home.

"See here, Gripps, I understand you have a superior way of curing hams. I should like to learn it."

"Well, yes, I know very well how to cure them, but the trouble with me, just now, is to find a way to procure them."

Collecting State Taxes.

The Raleigh Standard publishes the following letter of the State Treasurer:

RALEIGH, N. C. June 10, '70.
M. C. Brinkley, Esq., Sheriff, &c., Edenton, N. C.

DEAR SIR.—Yours of the 7th inst. received.

I think you can collect by distress at any time after you have, under section 26, given the tax payers a day for paying their taxes, while you are bound to receive taxes at the Courthouse during September. This last provision does not prevent you from collecting by force sooner if you think proper. Section 27 gives you full power to do so. Fix a day in each Township after the second Monday in July, and advertise such day. Then if any one does not pay on that day, proceed to collect by distress or otherwise, as you always did. There is no difficulty about it.

The obligation to attend at the Courthouse in September is intended for the convenience of tax-payers who have not paid sooner; but, as said before, you can collect it by distress sooner than September if you think proper.

Very respectfully,
D. A. JENKINS,
State Treasurer.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MESSENGERS, EDITORS:—Your information in the STAR of the 18th inst., that Mr. George Martin Whiteside did vote for a Convention, was gratefully received. We are glad to have the fact so plainly established that the people can not be deceived in regard to it. Now I want to ask Mr. Whiteside if this is the way he and his party intend to retrench our expenditures, by calling a Convention which will cost the State several hundred thousand dollars, to pay which of course the taxes must be increased? Is this the way to heal the bitter feelings engendered by the late war? Is this the way to educate the poor children of our State? Is this the way to restore our State to prosperity? Is this the way to stop murder and violence in the land? In short is this the way to allay the passions of men, insure peace and happiness and maintain the Union? Now in my judgement, the calling of a Convention would be attended with the most serious evils to the State, the desire for a Convention is prompted by the dregs of rebellion that still linger in the hearts of the old Secession party, and if called the Convention would be ruled by such men, and our State again thrown into anarchy and confusion and very probably war and bloodshed. It would place the State Treasury in the hands of hungry lawyers, fire the bitter feelings between neighbors, keep the poor class in ignorance, make our whole State poorer, encourage the spirit of violence and wickedness already existing, in fine to cripple the State so sorely that this generation nor the next could hope to see its redemption! The people are averse to such a step, they are not prepared to run the risk just yet. Mr. J. L. Carson and Mr. M. H. Justice are for a Convention. Mr. Carson would no doubt wiggle in some how and try for his $50 per day again. Little Mike Justice better known Confederately speaking as Lt. Justice, would like to be stationed at some point with a Military Commission, to distribute bread and meat, until it was necessary to retreat. I do wonder if this spike team of Lawyers expect to deceive the people into calling a Convention, I have no idea they can; many sober minded men of their own party oppose it, however we would like to see the people give them a fair hearing. The "Shebang" starts on exhibition the 6th of July, they will have a heavy load to pull but may be they may have breath enough left to tell what is in their wagon. The Republican candidates will be with them at each place of appointment and we feel sure that in Messrs. McFarland, Justice and Walker, we have men of calibre enough to utterly rout the opposition, and moreover we have confidence enough in the honesty and integrity of our good farmers, the yeomanry of the country that upon a fair hearing of the subjects at issue they will readily choose the right way, and at the coming election give us such a Victory as the friends of the Union have never before enjoyed. I believe the Conservatives consider Mr. Carson the best man in the field, the people ought to understand his merits, and I hope they will not fail to go out and hear him properly shown up by Mr. Justice, the Chester pig will puff and blow but Jimmy will have him to the wall before he is done with him, and the people will leave him wallowing in the mire in August next.

I am glad to notice the wide awake tone of the STAR, go on friends, you are doing a good work, I hear of men coming over to the Republican ranks frequently, all the people want to set them right is plain facts, the Republican party can afford to deal openly, while the only hope of the opposition lies in their power to secretly dupe, threaten and deceive.

There are one or two more points I want to see cleared up, and if not otherwise brought to light I may call on the STAR for the necessary information shortly.

Yours in high spirits,
RUTHERFORD.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16th, 1870.

Probably the debate in the House on no question during the Session, has elicited so much interest by outsiders as did the one yesterday in the House on the adoption of the report of Committee on foreign affairs. It has, of course, been well understood for some time past that Spain was favored by the silent influence of the administration; but it was not for a moment, supposed that the President could be induced to issue a message instructing Congress as to their duties respecting their judgement on Cuban affairs. The accusation against Hon. Caleb Cushing, of instigating and writing the message seems wholly untrue and it is now pretty generally understood that it emanated in the State Department. The fact that the son of Secretary Fish, has been acting as Attorney for Spain, is a marked indication from whence the wind blows. Without doubt, there has been no inconsiderable amount of Cuban bonds held in readiness to use in the interest of the Cuban insurgents, as has also been Spanish gold actually used in opposition.

While there are many Republicans favorable to the report of the Committee who will, for policy sake, sustain the views of the administration, without them there are more than enough, with the aid of the Democrats, to defeat this foreign policy of Secretary of State.

The bill which passed the House yesterday providing an increased bank circulation of ninety-five million takes the people here by no little surprise. The clause formerly in the bill which provided for the contraction of legal tenders has been stricken out, leaving the bill one of inflation to the extent of fifty-five millions.

This increase immediately effect the banks organized or to be organized under the apportionment contemplated in the act of 1865.

It was supposed by the Government that if Red Cloud and the Sioux chiefs could be induced to come to Washington and have a talk with their "Great Father" that the dangers of an Indian war would cease. The frontier settler having threatened to mete the swiftest vengeance upon them whenever opportunity favored, I learn that no little trouble was experienced by the Government in convincing the Indians that they would be safe in coming to Washington.

While their presence in Washington allowed the President and his associates the advantages of a friendly face to face talk with the Red men, it also allowed the influence of the conflicting interests of the Indians peace Commission on the one side, and the military, gold-greedy and land grabbing (and contractors) set of adventurous fellows on the other. No sooner had the Indian delegations arrived in Washington, did these selfish unprincipled curs, calling them by no worse name, begin to foment discord between our Government officials and the Indians; first by discouraging the Government in the idea of conquering peace with the Indians, by complying with their requests, second, by influencing the Indians to make unreasonable demands upon the Government, and such that was not within the powers of the President possibly to grant. Thus the incongruous double-work machine was applied to produce one and the same result. Yet with all this combined influence, the bitter experience of Red Cloud in his long years of wars with the whites, has it seems, a softening influence upon him, and it is thought he will not be hasty in commencing hostilities against the whites; but will wait for a while the carrying out of the promise to them from our Government. Meanwhile, the Government knowing the shallowness of Red Cloud's promise, not to disturb the whites so long as they are kept off his hunting grounds, has already set to work to carry out the programme on which rests all our hopes for permanent peace. The peace Commissioners, as far as I can learn, are dissatisfied with the promised result of this great Indian council and feel that whatever may be done will only result in patch work.

Let us hope that the Government, since it has full knowledge of the costs in the sacrificing of life and money of Indian wars in the past, will right about face in the good work of staying forever the recurrence of another Indian war. The history of the Seminole war, many years ago, and Sioux war, '55, in which our public treasury was drained to the tune of over one hundred million dollars, and thousands of lives, is a solemn admonition of warning! Let us heed. Better all the Indians the use of their hunting grounds for a few years undisturbed, than to be eternally giving to rail-road monopolies millions of acres, even approximate values of which are not known by its givers, only by its receivers.

The election in Richmond was conducted by Democratic Judges, Democratic Clerks, and the polls guarded by a Democratic police, and with a Democratic Mayor installed by riot and bloodshed, consummated by a catastrophe that appalled the whole country. The Mayoralty contest was inaugurated and carried through by Governor Walker for the purpose of having all the machinery of election in Democratic hands, and now, when the Republican candidates were declared elected by the official returns, and the election pronounced a fair one by Mayor Ellyson himself, we have the disgraceful scene of an attempt to defeat the will of the people by Democratic politicians. Of all the election frauds that politics has yet developed, this outrage at Richmond caps the climax, and if the "Conservative" candidates consent to accept the offices thus fraudulently awarded them they will sink Richmond and Virginia in the estimation of all honorable and honest people, and drive from her borders capital, enterprise and industry.

We learn that our fellow-citizen, Col. W. J. Clarke, has been commissioned by His Excellency, Gov. Holden, a Major General, and that with rank and pay of a Colonel, he will immediately proceed to raise a regiment for the purpose of supporting law and order, and putting down Ku Kluxism and every thing of that stripe. The Colonel is well known to be an earnest man, and we advise evil doers to lie close when he is about.—New Berne Times.

"Hallo, there, how do you sell your wood?"
"By the cord."
"How long has it been cut?"
"Four feet."
"I mean how long has it been since you cut it?"
"No longer than it is now."

A paragraph is going the rounds about a girl in Chester, Vt., dying from tight lacing. An editor, commenting on the fact, says:—"These corsets should be done away with, and if the girls can't live without being squeezed, we suppose men can be found who would sacrifice themselves. As old we are, we would rather devote three hours a day, without a cent of pay, as a fret corset, than see those girls dying off in that manner. Office hours almost any time."

DEATHS.

DIED.—At Marietta Georgia, on Thursday 9th inst., Virginia, wife of William Greene, formerly of this county, but for a number of years a resident of Cobb county Georgia. She was for a number of years a member of the Baptist Church, and was called home at the advanced age of 74 years. Ed.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD

STRONG VINEGAR!

IN ONE DAY!

From C

From the New York Observer.
Darby and Joan.

Poor Darby and Joan
Were very well known.
They were happy although they were poor.
Darby followed the plow,
And Joan milked a small cow;
But they scarce kept the wolf from the door.

It was now quarter day,
The landlord to pay,
They were puzzled, they did not know how:
Though grieved to the heart
With their favorite to part,
Joan sent Darby to sell the poor cow.

So he left his abode,
And set out on the road
Leading to Derrytown fair,
But his heart was so low,
He trudged on very slow,
Till he came within sight of a "Dear."

Darby never could pass
Without taking a glass,
So his errand he cheered to forget;
So tuning a song
He sauntered along,
Till he came to a donkey he met.

I'm tired, he cried,
And I must have a ride,
And want do you think come to pass?
Although it seems strange,
He made an exchange,
He changed the poor cow for a ass.

Away on his Noddy,
He rode pretty steady,
His comrade made him look big;
Till near the road-side,
A stout youth he espied,
Who to market was driving a pig.

Darby got down to see:
"Your porker," cried he,
"Has raised to my mind a wish,"
A bargain was struck;
Darby thought it good luck,
For pork was his favorite dish.

Next he met Old Daniel,
And with him a fine spaniel;
Says Darby, "I wish he were mine."
Says Daniel, "Take Ranger,
For you are no stranger;
I'll give you my dog for your swine."

So homeward he went,
Forgetting his rent,
For still he was absent in mind;
Two neighboring squire,
Through brambles and briars,
Had all the way followed behind.

As they drew near the door, sirs,
Their barbers corners
Were tied to the stump of an ash;
While in ambush they lay,
To hear what Joan would say,
When she found that he brought home no cash.

'Twas near the door-stone,
Darby met his dear Joan;
He tenderly gave her a kiss.
The squire still pursue,
Yet keeping from view,
To see if Joan took it amiss.

His story he told,
And Joan did not scold,
But put the dog with delight;
"Our cottage he'll guard,
Though fortune be hard;
Dear Darby, you always do right."

"For then we might ride
Down to town side by side;
Fat pork, too, I love," said Joan;
"But thanks to Old Daniel,
I date on a spaniel,
And now I have out of my own."

The gentleman who
Were hidden from view,
The conduct of Joan to behold;
With wonder regard,
And well to reward,
Each drew forth a purse full of gold.

Saying, "With this money now
Go and buy you a cow;
And with this go and pay your rent;
We blush not to own
T. at by these gentle Jans,
We have learned to be ever content."

AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA.

Thrilling Adventure of a Diver who Visited the Onocida--Verification of the Testimony of the Saved--Where the Blame Rests.

On the 24th day of February the "borrowed" steamer Aroostook, with Charles and J. S. Longee, practical and experienced divers from San Francisco, went to where the Onocida lay in 123 feet of water. After the usual preparations had been ascertained that the deck of the Onocida was 103 feet below the surface of the bay; after every caution had been given to eight strong sailors to keep the air-pumps in constant motion, and allow not an instant of time of stoppage to occur, as thereby depended the life of the bold diver; after Charles Longee had been helmeted, and shut out from air, except that supplied through the slender tube of coiled rubber, with life-line around his body and leaden clogs to his feet, with "Good-bye and God bless you from all aboard, and he was dropped over the side, and slowly disappeared in the blue waves, while a nervous tremor shot through our frames as we realized the fearful risk undertaken by that man who was seeking for truth in over one hundred feet of water.

Away to the leeward, borne by wind and tide, came floating bubbles to the surface--life-signals from below. The men at the pumps were laboring manfully, but becoming fatigued, attempted to change for fresh hands, and there was a stop. "Great God! you will murder my brother! Quick! for Heaven's sake, quick!" And as the men recommenced the revolutions of the air-pump, the elder Longee, with blanched face and trembling lips gave a signal of the life-line below. For an instant there came no response, and the face of that brother seemed to turn to marble; and then we saw two quick motions from the submarine station, and knew it was the welcome signal of "all right," and then Longee turned to the men at the wheel, who came so near sending both below and simply said: "My only brother's life depends upon your efforts in keeping that pump in motion--stop again at your peril." The calm face and passionate eye told those men not to stop again, and with Lieutenant Tanner close by, they kept at work until stopped by orders from Longee.

Meanwhile, while we were on the deck of that "sand-pan," counting the tedious moments which lengthened to half an hour, Charles Longee was searching the Onocida at the tremendous depth mentioned. At last came the signal for "surface," and instantly the life-line was put in motion; slowly came the coiling kemp and rubber on deck, and at last, away in the deep blue waves, came in sight the diver, shrouded and enshrouded in weird garments. As he came to the surface he reached Minister DeLong a sword and lacquered box, and then was his helmet loosened, and our party crowded around to hear of the gallant ship. Among our party were many of the survivors of the Onocida; among them were Wm. Crowninshield, Captain Clark, Master Yates, and Dr. James Suddard, who were intensely excited to learn the tidings.

Said the diver: "The water for the first seventy feet was quite clear, as the sun gave excellent light, and although my supply of air was once choked for an instant, I reached the deck of the ship just astern of the mizzen-mast, and close by mess-room hatch; the tide was ebbing quite strong, and I was compelled to hold lines from the rigging to keep from being swept forward. I first examined the side of the ship; she was cut from the mizzen (at an angle of about forty degrees) across the whole stern of the ship, her timbers far below the water-line being crushed and broken, the Captain's cabin cut in two, the whole and steering gear all carried away, and in fact, the whole side and end cut away. The ship is heading southwest, and sits upright on the bottom, and is making sand slowly. I lay down on the deck, and peered over the broken end into the cabin, but did not dare trust my air-line in contact with the jagged timbers. The guns and armament, except one, are all in place aft; but I did not dare go forward, as I was afraid of entanglement in the rigging." Then turning to Crowninshield, he said: "Your evidence, which I read, describes almost exactly the injury, except that she was cut deeper than you could have known." Longee expressed the belief that it will be impracticable to raise the ship, but that the splendid battery, personal effects, etc., can be saved if the Government sees proper. By this survey the testimony of the living is verified, and the memory of the dead without a stain, for the position of the ship as found, and the positions of both the Onocida and Bombay, as testified to by the navigating officers, shows that it was impossible for the captain of the Bombay to have ever seen the red light of the Onocida, and that the order of "Port your helm," by Captain Eyre, was wrong, and the "Starboard, hard-a-starboard," of Master Yates was right.

Religion and Ereemasonry.

It seems singular, but it is nevertheless true, that the Pope and one branch of the Presbyterian Church have identically the same estimate of secret societies, and labor alike to put them under the ban of the Church. At the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church on Monday, a resolution was passed declaring such associations to be "ensnaring in their nature, pernicious in their tendencies, and perilous to the liberties of both Church and State," this language being almost exact with that of a recent Papal bull.--Ex

A Fearful Massacre.
Butchery of Jews in Roumania--An Uprising of So-Called Christians in a Turkish Province--Thousands of Jews Butchered--The Massacre not Ended Yet.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 1. A fearful war of religious intolerance has broken out in the Province of Roumania, a metropolitan province of the Turkish Empire, the South of Europe. For some time the native Christians have manifested a spirit of fearful vindictiveness against the Jewish population, who have endeavored in vain to obtain from the government some protection against outrage and extortion. A secret movement has been in organization for some time for the inoffensive Jews, and the deep and deadly hatred of the bigoted populace has only been slumbering, awaiting a vent for its fury. On Sunday last, by a preconcerted signal, the Christian populace rose, and the fearful work of butchery was inaugurated. At an early hour the houses of all Jews were invaded, and those of the occupants who were unable to escape were massacred in cold blood. The fleeing Israelites were pursued through the town by an armed mob, and murdered wherever caught. Men, women and children were ruthlessly slain. The fury of the populace, inflamed with religious bigotry, only exhausted itself for want of victims. In all the principal towns the fearful work of butchery prevailed, and thousands of men, women and children of the unfortunate class were butchered in cold blood. The work of slaughter still goes on in the interior, and nothing has yet been heard of any movement of the authorities to suppress it. The reigning Prince is absent from the province, and advantage was taken of this to complete the total extermination of all Jews from the province. Prince Charles is hurrying home, and energetic measures will at once be taken by the Sultan to suppress the religious emete. Meanwhile the fury of the mob continues unabated, finding fresh victims to glut its insatiate fury.

The Dogma of Infallibility.

The Canons. The printed scheme of the dogma infallibility has been divided. It contains five canons. 1. If any one should say that the episcopal chair of the Roman Church is not the true and real infallible chair of Blessed Peter, or that it has not been divinely chosen by God as the most solid indefectible, and incorruptible rock of the whole Christian Church, let him be anathema. 2. If any one should say that there exists in the world another infallible chair of the truth of the Gospel of our Lord, distinct and separate from the chair of Blessed Peter, let him be anathema. 3. If any one should deny that the divine magistrature of Blessed Peter is necessary to the true way of eternal salvation for all men whether faithful or faithful, whether laymen or bishops, let him be anathema. 4. If any one should say that each Roman Pontiff, legitimately elected is not by Divine right the successor of Blessed Peter, even in the gift of infallibility, of magistrature, and should deny to any one of them the prerogative of infallibility for teaching the Church the Word of pure from all corruption and error let him be anathema. 5. If any one should say that general councils are established by God in the Church as power of feeding the Divine flock in the word of faith superior to the Roman Pontiff, or equal to him, or necessary by Divine institution in order that the magistrature of the Roman Bishop should be preserved infallible, let him be anathema. Dentist--"My dear woman, if you kept your teeth clean you would have less tooth-ache." Lady--"But Doctor, they say washing teeth wears them out." Doctor--"Good gracious, Madam. I hope you don't think that way when anything ails your feet!"

NEW YORK CITY.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best--T. K. Y. Knickerbocker. We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.--[Christian Intelligencer.] The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.--[Advocate and Journal.] Our friends will find at Mr. Waters, store the very best assortment of pianos and organs to be found in the United States.--[Graham's Magazine.] Horace Waters, 481 Broadway, is famed for the excellence of his Pianos and Organs.--[Evening Post.] The Waters' Piano ranks with the best manufactured in America.--[The Independent, N. Y.] Mrs. Mary Donnan--Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted all his capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons.

He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his pianos have recently been awarded the First premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook a modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his earned him a good reputation long before exhibitions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed we have one of Mr. Waters'

Instruments

Piano Fortes

now in our residence (where it has stood for years) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have all ways been delighted with it as a

Sweet-toned

and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the said piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first class instrument. Stronger endorsements we could not give.--[Home Journal.]

"ALL NATURE HOPES FOR SPRING," 1870. Witkowsky & Rintles.

THE RESULT OF AN ESTABLISHED and successful business, together with a steadily increasing CAPITAL, gives us, every season, better facilities to offer greater inducements to our numerous customers, both WHOLESALE and RETAIL, and hence this notice is worthy the

Attention

Of all. We are now making extensive purchases, which, owing to the very large increase in our business--during 1869, (the tax returns will show $27,000.00 ahead of any house in the City, and figures are still-coming in), enables us to buy with impunity as to quantity, and from first hand--namely, Manufacturers, Importers and Commission Houses, thereby, saving from 10 to 25 per cent. over smaller buyers--and it is this advantage that gives us the lead in this market.

Our Stock

Will be completed, or nearly so, by the 10th of March, and will embrace all classes of Goods necessary, either for WHOLESALE or RETAIL, to the inspection of which we invite not only those coming of this Market to purchase, also, those on their way to other places for that purpose.

We offer no balis, business will be conducted, in the future, as in the past, viz:

Honorable Competition against Imposition

Dry Goods Department

Will be complete, and selected with the greatest care, as to style, quality and price.

Clothing Department.

We make a specialty and invite the most fastidious to call and examine.

Boots and Shoes.

Will be bought mostly from manufacturers, in Boston and elsewhere, and we claim to be able to compete with all.

Hats.

Will be purchased at the BROOKLYN AUCTIONS and of NEWARK MANUFACTURERS.

Hardware.

Especially Table and Pocket Cutlery, we buy for Gold, from the Importers.

Groceries--there comes the rub.

That line of Goods we buy quantities second to no house in this City, (their assertion to the contrary, notwithstanding) and at as low figures as a dollar, consisting of 100 cents, can buy. In short, come and look at our stock, ascertain our prices, and judge for yourselves.

Millinery Department.

Is complete as usual, and is presided over by Miss BETSY WILLIAMS, who is widely known for her superior taste in that line.

Respectfully, Witkowsky & Rintles. Charlotte, N. C.
